

Film Review Writing Frame

FOR THIS GAME YOU WILL NEED:

- A pen or pencil.

How to complete your review

- This writing frame will help you to draft a film review by guiding you through the process.
- You might like to use the Creative Comparisons Challenge or the 3Cs and 3Ss Question Card activity to help you with your review.
- This is your chance to share your own opinions on the film.
- There are no wrong or right answers.

Title of film

Introduction

Hook the reader by making it interesting and exciting.

Paragraph 1 – Synopsis

Write a brief and snappy description what happens in the film. Try not to include any spoilers that can give away the ending or best bits.

Paragraph 2 – Context

- Use your favourite creative comparisons to help explain what the film is like.
- Include useful information like the names of actors and other films that the director has made.

Paragraph 3 – Evaluation

- Did you like the film? Why? Why not?
- Use a range of adjectives to describe how you feel.

Swap reviews and evaluate someone else's review.

Peer-assessed by (your name):

Two 'stars' (what was great about the review):

One 'wish' (something you would like to improve about the review):